Special Religious Education Participation Letter

A feature of the public education system in NSW is the opportunity to provide time in class for education in ethics, faith and morality from a religious or non-religious perspective at the choice of parents.

Students not attending Special Religious Education will be minimally supervised in private study/homework time until 2:50pm, unless parents indicate they wish their child to be released from school at 1:50pm every Tuesday, Week B.

For more information about Special Religious Education (SRE) and Special Education in Ethics (SEE), including the list of approved providers, please visit:

Ambarvale High School currently offers the following option for SRE:

The Department is required to obtain your consent under section 26 of the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW) so that it does not have to comply with section 19, which would otherwise apply to prevent the Department from providing your child's name.
