ARTucation Information Note for Parents and Carers

During Term 2, students will be participating in the ARTucation program that is being run within Ambarvale High School. ARTucation workshops will be facilitated by a trained professional from Youth Solutions in the presence of a teacher/worker from Ambarvale High School.

Youth Solutions

Youth Solutions is a youth drug and alcohol prevention and health promotion charity working with young people 12 – 25 years of age and the broader community in the Macarthur and Wingecarribee regions.

ARTucation

ARTucation is a creative arts and alcohol prevention program. ARTucation is designed to provide opportunities for young people aged 12 – 25 years to increase their skills and knowledge of Aboriginal culture, alcohol and healthy expression. Participants in ARTucation will take part in interactive workshops before creating artworks under the guidance of a local Aboriginal artist.

By participating in ARTucation, young people learn about:

- the effects of drugs and alcohol
- drugs, alcohol and the law
- standard drinks
- mental health
- healthy communication styles
- support services

Questions or concerns

If you do not wish for your child to participate in ARTucation, please complete and return the slip below.
